GOING DOTTY

Rug designer Christopher Farr has collaborated with textile designer Kate Blee on a new range of 'Pollen' linen fabrics inspired by 1970s Finnish prints. £80 per m (134cm W; christopherfarrcloth.com).

Stop press! Sanderson's exciting new autumn/winter fabric collection is inspired by the artists, poets and designers of the Bloomsbury Group. Expect romantic and abstract prints that capture the creativity of the early 20th century (sanderson-uk.com).

FLIGHTS OF FANCY

Welsh-based marquetry specialist Aryma combines traditional craftsmanship with state-of-the-art modern technology. This intricate life-size bird pattern features more than 50 different types of wood, including gold anigre used in the background.

Marquetry, from £3,000 per sq m, Aryma (aryma.co.uk)

TEXTILES TREAT

As fans of New York designer Madeline Weinrib's fabrics and rugs, we were thrilled to hear about her new pop-up shop at Andrew Martin. Several of her rugs can be customised, so you can alter the size or colour to suit your room.

HANDSOME HANDLES

For sculptural metal door handles, look no further than British manufacturer Izé, which has teamed up with designers Sebastian Bergne and Aldo Bakker to create these stylish, ergonomic designs. From top: lever handle by Aldo Bakker; 'Tota' lever handle by Sebastian Bergne, £250 each, Izé (ize.info).
